Introducing Catalent's Invisible Shield CosmoPod® Twist-Off Capsules

Product Description

Helps to prevent friction from shoes and relieves delicate areas of the feet including corns. Ideal to use when wearing shoes without socks; feels like an invisible sock. Also effective in relieving discomfort on any other body area exposed to repeated friction, especially when biking or during prolonged walking and/or running. Small unit-dose twist-off capsule that isn't greasy, messy or leave stains. Very practical to carry and easy to apply at any time as needed.

INGREDIENTS	HOW IT WORKS	BENEFITS
Silicon Elastomer	Promotes physical isolation from friction agent/material, similar to a second skin	Silky touch and texture, forms an invisible barrier, reducing attrition and promoting instant relief Helps to prevent the formation of blisters Slips on for easy application
Bisabolol and Zingiber Officinale (Ginger) Root Extract	Highly effective and synergistic soothing actives blend. Reduces pro-inflammatory agents	Skin soothing, promotes relief for skin attrition
Odor Absorber	Neutralizing odors, especially fatty notes by working primarily through physical-chemical and sensory modification to reduce perceived odor	Neutralizes body odors
